

Miss Carolina Strauss is treasurer of the Harlem Schiller Club and resides at 289 Amsterdam Avenue, New York City. Like many young women of the present day and time, Miss Strauss was troubled with poor digestion. She despaired of getting cured. As it has done in hundreds of similar cases, however, brought her speedy and permanent relief.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

Read Miss Strauss's story, told in her own strong, convincing words:

Pepsin Syrup Company, Monticello, Ill.:
Gentlemen—For several years I suffered with dyspepsia, heartburn and insomnia, all caused by poor digestion. I was in despair of getting cured when I heard of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. After taking 5 bottles I was restored to health. The intense heat of the summer does not prostrate me as formerly, but I have enjoyed every day, because my health was good. I do not wonder at Syrup Pepsin finding such ready sale, as it is certainly worth its weight in gold. Yours truly, CAROLINA STRAUSS.

to the floor twice for the count of seven. Corbett met Sullivan with a fearful joit to the stomach, and the latter clung desperately to the champion.

A wild swing by Sullivan caught Corbett on the stomach, but he waded right in after Sullivan, sending him to the ropes with left and right hooks to the jaw. They mixed it, Corbett delivering terrific punishment on the body and face. Sullivan bled from he nese. Corbett drove his left straight to the face, but Sullivan surprised the champion by sending in two terrific lefts, one to the body and one to the face.

Both men fought desperately, Sullivan making a rally that sent the pavilion into an uproar. It looked very much like a dying man's effort, however; but nevertheless Sullivan inflicted bad punishment on the champion as the round ended. It was Corbett's round.

Cutting a Thing of the Past in Suc cessfully Treating Rupture.

The German-American Doctors have won a place of prominence in the homes of all sufferers of RUPTURE, for they have a method of treatment that has been tested by thousands of people, that will cure RUPTURE without operation or cutting, and with little or no pain. The treatment does not interfere with one's going about their routine duty, and a cure is absolutely certain in every case the German-American Doctors accept for treatment.

If you are suffering from RUPTURE, do not keep on wearing a trues and taking the chances of stinngulation and the many compilications that may arise from a neglected RUPTURE. You can be referred to great numbers whom the German-American Doctors have cured, if you doubt their ability. Read the following expressions from two serious ceases that have been treated and cured, and which are most serious tests as to the success of their method:

swung left to jaw lightly and was countered with a left hook to the stomach. Corbett missed a terrific left swing for the jaw and a right swing also went wild, as did a straight left by Stillyan.

They clinched and Corbett, after the break-away, missed a fearful left swing for the jaw. He offset this by a hard right swing to the head and escaped a counter. Corbett swung his right to the ear and missed a swing with his right for the jaw.

Sullivan forced the champion to the ropes, landing left flush to the face and a right to the head. They went to close quarters, mixing it without damage. The bell clanged at this stage. Sullivan continued to show improvement and is far clinched. Breaking away both swung inand the went together. Emerging from the clinch, Corbett joited Sullivan with right to the jaw and quick as a flash planted his left hard to the nose, and a manent later got in a left to the head and a right to the jaw.

They stood close together, and finally, as Sullivan backed away, two rights caught him on the jaw and he quickly sought refuge in a nix-up in which he received two fearful rights to the body. Corbett missed a right swing and after receiving a straight left to the face, drove in a straight right on Sullivan's face, forcing him to a clinch.

Vicious infighting followed, with Corbett having considerably the better of it. It was easily Corbett's round, the champion's blows having great force behind them. Sullivan looked a bit worried as he went to his corner.

They at once mixed it, the champion landing several rights on the body and lefts to the face. Sullivan was outmatched at this kind of fighting, and Corbett had no difficulty in landing. Sullivan backed Corbett against the ropes, nearly forcing him through, and landing several good rights and lefts to the body.

They worked their way to the center of the ring, Corbett finally landing two rights and a left on the jaw. Sullivan fought back gallantly, but his blows failed to find a resting place. They again fought breast to breast.

They again fought breast to breast, Corbett doing the most execution. However, Sullivan drove his right twice to the body and a left to the same place. He forced Corbett against the ropes in his opponent's corner and gave the champion as much as he took. It was a grueling finish to the round with honors even. Corbett had the better of the "his sant ferces!y, exchanging rights and lefts to the body. Corbett, however, outfought his antagonlet and gave three blows to Dave's one. Sullivan jolted the champion with a right uppercut and was ordered to discontinue holding by Referce Graney Finally Corbett equals was made left to the jaw and he left to the jaw and he left to the jaw and he left to the jaw as he broke away, and broke away, and they mixed it again vi-ciously, Corbett planting right and left to the jaw.

Corbett sent Sullivan to the floor with a blow very low, and the crowd yelled "Foul!" He followed it with right and left to the jaw, and the bell rang. The foul, while unquestionably delivered, was plain-ly accidental. The crowd kept on yelling "Foul!" at the end of the round, but Referee Graney paid no attention to the claim of Sullivan's seconds.

ROUND ELEVEN.

the kidneys. He swung three hard lefts to Dave's face and forced the latter to a clinch. Corbett jarred Sullivan with an avalanche of rights and lefts to the jaw and Sullivan spit blood all over the ring. He saved himself only by holding on. Corbett sent Sullivan to the floor with a fearful right and left swing, and as Suilivan came to his feet Corbett beat his face into a jelly.

Sullivan clung desperately to the champion. Corbett beat his opponent mercliesely about his face and jaw, nearly sending him through the ropes. The crowd yelled for Grancy to stop the contest, the game Irishman being practically helpless. Grancy finally stopped the contest and awarded the decision to Corbett, Sullivan, while not knocked out, was hopelessiy defeated when the decision was given against him.

JACK O'BRIEN MATCHED TO FIGHT MIKE SCHRECK.

Middle Weights Will Go Fifteen Rounds at 158 Pounds at the West End Club March 10.

After a long period of inactivity, boxing is to be resumed at the West End Clab, Philadelphia Jack O'Brien and Mike Schreck having been matched to go fifteen ounds on the evening of March 10. This contest should be one of the best outs witnessed here of late, and the affair will mark O'Brien's first appearance in the local ring. He has agreed to fight Schreck at 158 pounds, and at that weight Schreck at 18 pounds, and at that weight the Cincinnati man should be able to put up one of his fusicest fights.

O'Brien has not appeared in St. Louis. Schreck has fought here on several occasions, his most notable contests being his bouts with Hugo Kelley and with Andy Walsh. His casy victory over Cyclone Kelley was also won in the West End Club ring.

No preliminary has been definitely carded for the event as yet, but St. Louis Tommy Sullivan and Veung Kid McCoy may be put on, according to Charley Haughton's announcement. This should furnish a fast sette.

GENERAL RACING NOTES.

Worth Jockey Club Demands Six Days in May From Western Body. Stockholders and directors of the Worth Jockey Club blossomed out in the Chicago press yesterday with an ultimatum to dates for the ensuing summer. Six days of racing in May seem likely to be the of racing in May seem likely to be the price of peace around Chicago this year. Although the Worth representatives have made no definite statements that they intend to combat the other Chicago tracks, the press of the city scems assured that war will follow if Worth decides to close its gates. It seems conceded by sporting writers of the town that the Worth magnates will not sit still and watch the other fellows having all the fun and making all the rioney.

In the Chicago Record-Herald yesterday Charles A. Gibbs, a prominent stockholder of the track, is onoted as saying that the course would most certainly not open its gates unless it received racing dates from May 21 to May 27, in addition to those already allotted.

The Worth directorate, however, announces that it is willing to swap some of its early dates with Hawthorne or Harlem. It insists that it will have its racing period in May or will know the reason why. There the matter stands.

HER RESIGNATION DECLINED.

Belleville School Board Will Hold Miss Mueller to Contract.

At the meeting of the Board of Educa tion of Belleville last night Miss Elsie Mueller, school teacher, tendered her resgnation. It was refused by the board on the ground that she had in a contract agreed to teach school for the entire season. It is said that Miss Mueller intended to resign to accept a better position in East St. Louis.

East St. Louis.

Miss Mueller has been receiving 337.59 a month.

The board decided to hold out her salary for February in the event that she resigns, and if they are unable to secure the services of another teacher at that amount they will pay the difference for the season with the $37.09.

The question of building a new school was also considered. It was reported that there are 569 vacant seats in the Belleville schools, and that by rearrangement, the new building will not be necessary. The children will be sent to different schools in order to fill the vacancies.

MADISON POLICE HELD FOR JURY.

Chief McCambridge and Two Patrolmen Must Answer for Poolroom Riot.

The Madison policemen who were arested as an outcome of the riot at the Madison poolroom on February 19 were yesterday held for the Madison County Grand Jury. Those bound over are former Chief Patrick McCambridge, Chief John Meehan and Patrolman William Street. The case against William Coyle, son of Mayor Coyle, who was charged with shooting Lee Harlan during the raid, was dismissed, as Harlan did not appear at the hearing. Justice Glass of Edwardsville presided.

The first case called was that of Patrolman Street. The case was heard Saturman Street. The case was heard Saturday and Justice Glass announced that Street would be held for the Grand Jury. Bond was placed at $300.

Former Chief McCambridge and Mechan, upon hearing the decision, decided to waive preliminary hearing and were held in $200 bond. McCambridge is charged with operating a poolroom and Mechan is charged with false imprisonment and resisting an officer.

Ivan Zurkhin and William J. Schwartz of Edwardsville signed the bonds for the defendants.

Because She Married a Man of Another Religious Faith, Mrs. Persse Lost Property.

To the departure from what was con-sidered the religious faith of an entire family is said to be due a legal complication which has arisen in Madison County and bids fair to involve a dozen or more persons. A woman's marriage to a man who happened to be of another be-ilef estranged her relatives, and while they considered her dead, and even pro-fessed this belief in court, she has personally "resurrected" herself and bids fair to cause trouble about the "demise" which she did not sanction. The woman who departed this life in Persse, of County Galway, Province of Connaught, Ireland. She was a sister of the late John Kelly of Alton, Mr. Kelly died in Alton September 3, 1900, leaving

On September 7, three days after Kelly's death, proof of his death was made in the Probate Court before Judge W. P. Early, and Charles Donnelly of Alton was appointed administrator. The list of heirs was given, but no mention made of Mrs. Persse, who would have had a one-seventh interest in Kelly's own property and a one-fourteenth interest in that left him by his wife.

The Muster in Chancery sold the property, which consisted of lots in Alton. There was also $5.015 in personal property. It was divided and the estate considered settled.
